It is Will McCormick of Calumet was a claimed that the present stress of fine Blight, 2nd floor. weather is injuring business. The hardware dealers report that hardly any skates, hockey sticks or other articles connected with winter pastime are being called for as yet. As a rule about this time of the year the hardware dealers are very busy persons. If it is impossible to open the Pales tra for ice skating on Thankagiving eve there is every likelihood it will be cember. This has been invariably the case since the rink was built. The big floor will be flooded as soon as the weather gives any indications of freez.
